Dear Mr. Astheimer,

Thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of ~~[illegible]~~ your letter to Jim Moore about his trash.

I'm glad to have it for the historical record.

It is hard to believe that anyone not already institutionalized could turn out anything as irrational.

He appears to have had ulterior purpose with regard to the subject matter at least since before he was out of high school.

And, finally, to have found a way of indulging himself.

To the best of my recollection you are the first person to mention it to me in any way. So, I presume it has not sold well.

We left Hyattstown in 1967. Post Mortem and the second printing of Photographic Whitewash were published from Frederick.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
